

EverReady Services and COVID-19

EverReady Services is taking the novel coronavirus very seriously and we are here to work with you to lessen the impact and the spread of COVID-19. As Kansas City's trusted local experts for 20 years we pride ourselves in treating our customers like family. Rest assured we will not waiver from that during this time of fear and confusion.

Guided by the Center of Disease Control (CDC) EverReady is prepared to assist your business, school, office or community setting get back to a healthy environment. We have procedures in place to clean and sanitize your space to prevent the transmission of coronavirus and other respiratory illnesses.

We know that every site presents its unique challenges, so EverReady will custom tailor a strategy that protects the health of your customers, employees and community. Contact us today for a scope tailored just for you.